

Abstract

Title: Comparison of selected variables of gaming performance in football

Objectives: Analysis of selected variables of gaming performance in the matches of professional Czech football teams in the Champions League and UEFA Europa League in 2013. During the observation to register set variables, then evaluate obtained results and compare them.

Methods: The use of observational analysis and comparison of selected variables of gaming performance in competitive matches of professional football.

Results: Show differences between Czech and top football teams in the Champions League and European Cup. Explain in which factors particular teams excel and in which they drop behind opponent, they evaluate monitored variables in the match itself, that can decide the outcome of the match.

Keywords: Professional football competitions, gaming performance indicators, observational analysis, comparison of variables, interpretation to training practice.